PETITIONING THE COURT

Due to the offender not having waived a hearing, the probation officer requests that a summons be issued and hearing held to modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- 28 You shall reside in a residential reentry center (RRC) for a period of up to 180 days. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility and shall participate in programs offered by the facility at the direction of the supervising officer.

CAUSE

The probation officer believes that the action requested above is necessary for the following reasons:

Mr. Bray is scheduled to release from BOP custody on May 13, 2010. At this time he has no approved release plan to the community. Mr. Bray had proposed relocation to the District of Georgia, however, his relocation request was denied by that district and he will now report to the Eastern District of Washington without any community resources, or an approved release residence.

Mr. Bray has a prior sexual offense conviction and his residence is subject to the approval of U.S. Probation. At this time, Mr. Bray has not provided a residence address in the community for approval or consideration.
